

Building a Team That Really Works (Team Building/Teamwork)

Sometimes it is okay to go it alone, but most successful managers are only as successful as the team they lead. To build a successful team you don't need to break out the pom-poms. The right amount of support, guidance, encouragement, and good team spirit will take a team to the top.

In this program managers will learn:

- Boss, teacher, leader, friend?
- Lead, facilitate, motivate
- Building an effective team
- Team building activities
- Getting problem players back on the team
- Helping exceptional players realize their full potential
- Getting the most out of your team

Program options:

- Option 1: Three-hour presentation
- Option 2: Full-day seminar

Who should attend?

Mid-level management; supervisory / operative level management.
