

You're a Leader, Now What? (Team Leadership/Team Facilitator)

Leading is not as easy as one often thinks. Being given the title of manager, executive, or chief does not mean that those who work for you are going to automatically follow you. So, what does it take to make a great leader? Do you need to be a born leader in order to succeed?

In this seminar managers will learn practical strategies that will help them develop their leadership talents and abilities. Topics include:

- Are leaders born or made?
- The making of a great leader
- What is your vision?
- Getting your team on board
- Communicating effectively
- Sharing the responsibilities
- Leading by example

Program options:

- Option 1: Three-hour presentation
- Option 2: Full-day seminar

Who should attend?

Mid-level management; supervisory / operative level management.
